The Genealogical Records Committee

Fort Dearborn Chapter

of the National Society Daughters of American Revolution Submits this record with the knowledge that references are not included, but that many clues are provided for further research.

The material for this record was collected by Benjamin Shurtleff (1866-1952) compiled from the notes left by his great-grandfather, Dr. Benjamin Shurtleff (1774-1847), and some of the Plympton records, at the time he was compiling his two volume work, "Descendants of William Shurtleff of Plymouth and Marshfield, Massachusetts," published in 1912 at Revere, Massachusetts.

The many Shurtleff-Shaw marriages encouraged him to continue his collection of Shaw materials with the anticipation that he would publish a Shaw Genealogy at a later time.

In his 85th year, Mr. Shurtleff gave the manuscript of the Shaw notes to Margaret Johnson Drake, a descendant of Isaiah Shaw, in the hope that she might oversee the printing of his notes.

This humble effort to present to the reader the extensive notes of a dedicated American Genealogist is offered with the hope that others who have additional information will contact Mrs. Drake in order to complete these records.

from a letter written by Benjamin Shurtleff in April 1950;

"....The vital records of Carver printed in 1911 verify these dates. In fact these vital records were compiled from my copies which I made of all the graveyards in Carver.....

Abigail Atwood's son, Dr. Benjamin Shurtleff, was my great grandfather and died in 1847 so of course I never saw him. He became interested in Genealogical Research and while he resided in Boston had not much time for it, but would drive home to his mother and talk with her about old times, who this one was, where did so and so go and what became of this, that and the other one.

..... in fact I about wore out all the records in Plymouth of every description while writing my Shurtleff Genealogy. I even spent winters down in Plymouth County year after year while compiling records. I can now look back and wonder how on earth I ever did it. Well, life at 84 and in the twenties is very different. I enjoyed it and made many friends and glad, too, that I have done it."
